

CODE OF CONDUCT STUDENT

SACRED HEART
COLLEGE

We have resolved that as students, we all want to feel:

- Safe
- Included
- Challenged and Encouraged
- Respected
- Happy
- Proud of our School

Furthermore, as members of the Sacred Heart College Community we are invited to live the College's core values of compassion, courage and respect.

The support of the whole College community – staff, parents and students – is needed to bring this to fruition.

SAFE

All students have the right to be safe from verbal, physical, moral and psychological harm. To promote safety in our school we will:

- Lead by example
- Tell someone in authority
- Personally address the issue
- Have the courage to stand up for someone who is feeling unsafe
- Discuss the problem with the person or a teacher
- Create safe spaces for year groups around the school

INCLUDED

All students have the right to be included in our school. To promote inclusion, we will:

- Lead by example by including others
- Promote inclusiveness at public gatherings
- Challenge group mentality
- Ask others to reflect on their actions
- Talk about the College value "Compassion"

CHALLENGED AND ENCOURAGED

All students have the right to be included in our school. To promote inclusion, we will:

- Applaud others on their personal bests

CODE OF CONDUCT STUDENT

COLLEGE

- Encourage others to challenge themselves
- Encourage participation in co-curricular activities
- Encourage others to set ambitious goals
- Talk to the College value “Courage”

RESPECTED

All students have the right to be respected in our school. To promote respect, we will:

- Respect our peers
- Respect the right of others to participate in the College community
- Address disrespect of the College, staff, students, their values, beliefs, interests or property
- Tell someone in authority when the school, staff or peers are being disrespected
- Talk about the College value of “Respect”

HAPPY

All students have the right to be happy in our school. To promote happiness, we will:

- Bring a positive attitude to school every day
- Do what makes us happy rather than ‘cool’
- Initiate projects that make our school brighter and comfortable
- Support wellbeing initiatives and mindfulness spaces
- Promote the use of resources available within the College such as the ADPs and psychologists

PROUD

All students have the right to be proud of our school. To promote pride, we will:

- Wear our uniform correctly
- Talk positively about the school and College events
- Address students who do not show pride in the College
- Contribute to the positive reputation of the school
- Represent the College proudly out in public
